Athletic Trainer

Caragh joined the Marietta team in July 2020.

Caragh was born in South Africa and moved to Massachusetts in 2000. In 2012 she moved to Chichester, England to attend the University of Chichester and completed her Bachelors in Sports Therapy. After moving back to Massachusetts, she received her Massage Therapy License and Personal Training Certification. In 2018 she moved to Georgia to complete her Masters in Athletic Training at Life University. After her 5-month rotation at Marietta and being a part of the 2019 State Championship football team, Caragh wanted to join the team permanently. She was hired by PT Solutions and will be working at the middle school and high school.
